Quaestio medica quodlibetariis disputationibus mane agitanda in Scholis Medicorum, die Jovis 13a Decembris M. Jacobo Cousinot Moderatore.

An Melancholicus humor divinior?

Naturae sublunaris numen, cuncta dispensat, moderatur: sed congruenti causarum serie. Earum perspecta pauca, nisi per effectum: ita indemonstrabiles a priori. In hisce vulgus, ut solet, fallitur. A priori plurima pro caecis habet, et vicissim multa etiam se videre putat, quae nullo sensu usurpantur, et gravitate et subtilitate. Plura in homine miracula despiciens, quia quicquid naturae facultatis vires excedit tribuit, id omni[hominum] videtur elargita [illegible] causa non latet plerumque illa, aut natura superior (qualis obtrudit vulgus) sed melancholicus humor actionis cuiusque divinioris opifex.

Humoris [illegible], facultati [illegible] prodit, per omnia functionum [illegible] diffunditur, et, quod caput est, occultiore agendi principio. Humorum motus obscurior, paroxysmorum ataxia, divinioris animi [illegible], morborum τὸ θεῖον [illegible] a alia causa. [illegible] humor [illegible] locο [illegible] molestus est. Hic accessionum [illegible] tranquillo [illegible] gravissimis symptomatis [illegible]: febricula [illegible], cephalalgia, siti, anxietate, jactatione, dyspnaea [illegible] humori melancholico [illegible] quartanariis [illegible] motus obscurior, quia [illegible] materiae copia [illegible] natura [illegible].

In [illegible] humor [illegible] διὰ νόσους [illegible] melancholia [illegible] habitus [illegible] doctrina nonnihil adjuvat et exercitatio.

M[illegible] morborum historia [illegible] humor [illegible] ἐπιβολή [illegible] ἰσχύν [illegible] apoplexia [illegible].

Jam [illegible] melancholicorum naturam [illegible] πολυφάνταστος καὶ πολυόνειρος [illegible] προσαλινός καὶ εὐόνειρος [illegible] ἔκστασις σφοδρὰ καὶ θειώδης [illegible] αὐτοδίδακτοι [illegible] ἐνεργούμενοι [illegible].

Ergo Melancholicus humor divinior.
